

The East Side Flyer

www.eastsidefire.com

December 2019

Jo Moncrief, ESFD Community Relations Officer

"Community is much more than belonging to something; it's about doing something together that makes belonging matter." - (Brian Solis)

Outdoor lights make your home look festive. Make sure your light strands are rated for outdoor use. Whether outdoor or indoor, follow manufacturer's instructions about the maximum number of strands to connect.

Many of us enjoy the warm ambiance that candles bring to a room. Candles cause about 1/3 or home decoration fires. Consider battery-operated flameless candles which add their own ambiance without the risk of fire.

Mom's famous pecan pie, Dad's beef stroganoff, Uncle Dan's potatoes au gratin. Overeating often leads to indigestion. Heart attacks can sometimes be mistaken for indigestion. If you have any doubts, call 911.

Ugh! Cold and flu. Hand-washing and using sanitizers may reduce your chance of contracting a virus.

No one wants to suffer a pulled muscle or back injury. Use good body mechanics when shoveling snow. Work slowly and take breaks.

Icy and snowy roads can ruin your day. When traveling, check road conditions, allow extra time and slow down.

Take time to prepare your car and home for winter. Check tire treads, maintain antifreeze level, and carry your winter emergency kit inside your vehicle.

Years have passed since that first handful of neighbors helped to make East Side Fire a reality. With that same dedication and passion, we continue to grow and improve our ability to serve this place we call home.

Our Community

Wait, I know this....

How many vehicles does East Side Fire have?

- A. 20 B. 14 C. 17 D. 22

Last month's question: How does ESFD rank for fire tax levies among all of Kootenai County fire districts?

Answer: Second lowest